"Internet+" Competition - Confirm your account

no-reply 于 12:18 发给 我

Dear [ ],

Thank you for signing up for the 2022 "Internet +" Competition as an international team of the Higher Education Track.

Please confirm your account email through the link below:

Confirm my account

And there are a few things we would like to notify you:

1. As an international team of the competition, your entry materials and on-site presentation should be in either English or Chinese. Please contact the organizing committee before evaluations if another language is requested.

2. All your team members registered in the competition must be currently studying in a university outside of China or have graduated from a university outside of China after 2017.

3. If you are currently studying in China (including Hong Kong, Macau and Taiwan) and do not hold a degree issued after 2017 by an oversea university, regardless of your nationality, you should apply as a domestic team via https://cy.ncss.cn/ .

Please read the invitation before you start.

Wish you all the best in the competition!

On this page, the team leader can change the entry group that his/ her team participates in but can't do this after registration. Since each group has different requirements for participants' education level and studying status, the team leader should choose the right entry group and provide correct information of all participants.

According to the eligibility requirements, all participants, including the team leaders and team members, should participate in the competition on behalf of international universities and be younger than 35 years old (born after March 1, 1987). If any member's date of birth does not meet the requirements, the application can not be submitted.

In addition to filling out the personal details, the team leader should also upload a profile photo of himself/herself and upload the documents proving his/her studying status/education level issued by his/her college/ university (in PDF format). Documents proving studying status/education level issued by colleges/universities include but are not limited to schooling certificate, graduation certificate or degree certificate awarded, and the report of school record filed on the official college/university website. If the aforementioned documents are in a language other than English, the participant must attach the English version translated from the original documents in a PDF file, and the participants should sign to confirm that the contents of the translated version are in conformity with the contents of the original documents.

10. According to the competition requirements, for teams with a registered company, the team leader should also be the company's legal representative, and if the name of the company's legal representative is not in conformity with the leader's name, it will lead to an unsuccessful application. Meanwhile, the legal representative (team leader) of a emerging category project should hold no less than 1/3 of shares, and the participating team members (including team leader) should hold shares no less than 51%. The legal representative (team leader) of a rising category project should hold no less than 10% of shares, and the participating project members (including team leader) should hold shares no less than 1/3 of the total. Proofs of shareholding ratio for the team members include but not limited to Name list of company shareholders, information on the website recognized by relevant official departments of industry and commerce, and the statement of shareholding ratio with the stamp of the company or the signature of the legal representative.

After filing out the legal entity information and uploading the proofs of shareholding ratio of project members, please click on "Save" at the bottom. On this page, you can see review all the information completed and saved about the team leader, team members, the project profile, and the legal entity. The team leader can review and modify all information. Modified information in breach of the requirements of the category will affect the subsequent submission of the registration.

Upon confirming the information and the uploaded documents, please click on "Submit my entry" at the bottom of the page to complete the registration. You will enter the page of successful registration, and a notice of successful registration will be sent to the registered e-mail box of the team leader.
